

VENETO REGION

Veneto is everything you can possibly imagine: one region, endless experiences

A single region that offers endless wonders: art, nature, sea, mountains, wellbeing and gastronomic delights. Compact and accessible, within the span of just a few hours, Veneto amazes with its outstanding concentration of beauty: 9 UNESCO World Heritage Sites, unforgettable cities and ever-changing landscapes.

The cities of art are the beating heart of the region. Venice, with its Lagoon, enchants the world with its uniqueness; Verona, the city of the Arena, captivates with its Roman amphitheatre and romantic atmosphere; Vicenza, the city of Palladio; Padua, boasting two UNESCO sites; Treviso, elegant and welcoming; Belluno, the gateway to the Dolomites; and Rovigo, a green destination waiting to be discovered. Alongside its most famous cities, Veneto preserves a wealth of hamlets, walled towns, historic villas and castles, where time seems to slow down.

The Belluno Dolomites, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, offer spectacular scenery and an authentic connection with nature in every season: panoramic trekking, winter sports, leisurely walks and outdoor activities for everyone.

From the mountains to the rolling hills and from the lakes to the sea, Veneto offers an endless network of trails, cycle paths and nature routes, ideal for exploring the area at a slower pace. The Prosecco Hills of Conegliano and Valdobbiadene – a UNESCO World Heritage Site – captivate visitors with their harmonious vistas of vineyards, wine roads and itineraries steeped in history.

For those seeking relaxation and wellbeing, Veneto's thermal spas are the perfect destination to rejuvenate body and mind.

Lake Garda invites visitors to enjoy the water with sports, excursions and leisure time, while the Veneto coast, with its golden sandy beaches, offers entertainment, crystal-clear waters and high-quality amenities.

The waterways tell the story of a fascinating and surprising side of Veneto: cruising along the Brenta among the elegant Venetian villas, exploring the nature itineraries of the Po Delta – suspended between land, water and sky – and the quiet of pristine nature just waiting to be discovered.

Rounding out the experience is a rich calendar of cultural events, traditional festivals and historical re-enactments, along with an extraordinary culinary scene: local products, traditional recipes and outstanding wines make every trip a pleasure for the senses.
